DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 12/19/07 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 12, 22, 23, and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ruvang 5,713,145. Ruvang shows an attachment system for connecting a lip plate of a digging device to a ground engaging tool, having a lug 64 mounted on the lip plate 54 including a rear face; an engaging recess 102 arranged in a rearwardly extending attachment portion of the ground engaging tool 62, extending inwardly of the attachment portion from a rear surface thereof, the engaging recess being arranged to received the lug 64; a lug engaging member 96 (inner on adjacent 94) insertable into the engaging recess from the rear surface of the attachment portion, the lug engaging member arranged to engage the rear face of the lug; a resilient member 98 coupled to the lug engaging member 96 opposite the lug; and a compressive member 86 at least partially insertable into the engaging recess from the rear surface of the attachment portion to apply a compressive force to the resilient member to engage the lug engaging member with the rear face of the lug and restrain a longitudinal movement of the lug relative to the ground engaging tool.

As concerns claims 22 and 33, Ruvang shows the engaging recess 102 comprises: an open lower end; a first portion remote from the rear surface of the attachment portion, the first portion being complementary in shape to the lug to receive the lug 64; and a second portion adjacent the rear surface of the attachment portion, the second portion having a substantially constant cross section of slightly larger dimension than the lug to be placed about the lug to restrict a lateral relative movement of the ground engaging tool and the lip plate (fig 4-6).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 13-21 and 24-32 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 11/20/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments point out that either 100 or 86 could be considered the compressive member; since the claim language only states that the compressive member is insertable into the rearward portion. Ruvang shows both nut 100 or bolt 86 inserted into the rear portion of the recess 102, thus meeting the claim language. This is further demonstrated by washers 96 having the same reference number and shown in the same size, thus insertable into opening 102. Also, in order for nut 100 to function as a nut, it must connect to the threads of 86 which clearly shown in the recess (fig 5 & 6), therefore, insertable into the recess.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
